Anthropology Citation Style Guide, following the Society for American Archaeology (SAA): Short Version

Capitalization (Follows Webster’s and Chicago)

(a) Ethnic, Socioeconomic, and Other Groups (Chicago 8.41–8.45)
- Capitalize these terms as noted (unless author objects): African American, Afro-American, Alaska Native, American Indian, Asian American, Canadian American, Euramerican, Euro-American, Euro-Canadian, European American, European Canadian, First Nation, Hispanic, Indo-European, Jew, Latina, Mesoamerican, Native American, Pacific Islander, Australian and Canadian Aboriginal and Aborigine
- Lowercase these terms as noted: aboriginal (where not Australian or Canadian); black; highlander, but Highlander (where referring to Scottish); indigenous; mestizo; native (as adj. except for specific populations, such as noted above); redneck; white

(b) Events (Chicago 8.81–8.84)
- Capitalize historical, quasi-historical, political, economic, and cultural events or plans: Battle of the Books, Boston Tea Party, Cold War (20th century, USSR vs. USA), Great Depression, the Holocaust, Industrial Revolution
- Lowercase: California gold rush, civil rights movement, cold war, depression

(c) Figures, Tables, and Appendixes (exception to Chicago)
- Capitalize in text if they refer to items within the present work, lowercase if they refer to those in other works:
  - In Figure 1
  - As you can see in Table 2
  - In Johnson’s figure 1
  - Evidence in Johnson’s table 1 agrees with my own (Table 2)

(d) Historical and Cultural Terms (Chicago 8.77–8.80)
- Where capitalized by tradition or to avoid ambiguity, per Chicago and Webster’s use: Middle Ages, Progressive Era, Restoration, Roaring Twenties, Stone Age
- Lowercase: ancient Greece, nuclear age, romantic period, U.S. colonial period

(e) Names of Organizations (including committees, associations, conferences)
- Capitalize full official names, but lowercase “the” preceding a name, even where it is part of the official title: the Baltimore City Council, Bureau of the Census, Census Bureau, Circuit Court of Cook County
- Lowercase where they become general: the bureau, city council, congressional, council, county court, federal

(f) Names of Places (Chicago 8.46–8.63)
- Capitalize geographical and popular names of places: Antarctica, Asia, Atlantic, Back Bay (Boston), Central America, City of Brother-ly Love, Foggy Bottom (D.C.), Ivory Coast, North Pole, Orient, the States, Third World (do not hyphenate as adj.), Upper Michigan
• Directions should be capitalized where used as a name but not where used as a direction:
  o Caribbean Islands; Far East; North India; North Pole; Pacific Islands; the South;
  o South India; South Pacific; the Southwest (n.), but southwestern (adj.); the West; Westernize
  o northern Michigan, the south of France, southeastern, western Samoa, the Western world

• Lowercase: eastern Europe, western Europe, central Europe. Exceptions: use Eastern and Western Europe in the context of the political divisions of the Cold War; use Central Europe in the context of the political divisions of World War I

(g) Titles and Offices (Chicago 8.21–8.35)

• Capitalize civil, military, religious, and professional titles only where they immediately precede the name. In formal usage, such as acknowledgments or lists of contributors, capitalize the title following the name: B.A. in anthropology; Judy Jones, Smith
  Professor Emeritus at Yale University; Professor Jones, associate professor of education studies; a professor emeritus; Henry Trueba, chair of the Department of Education
  Studies; the chairman of the department

• For academic degrees or titles, capitalize where formal, lowercase where informal:
  Louis Spindler, Ph.D.; a Master of Science degree from University of Virginia; a master’s degree in education

(h) Titles of Works (Chicago 8.164–8.177)

• Capitalize first and last words of titles and subtitles in English. For other languages, follow Chicago.

• Capitalize both words in a hyphenated compound (exception to Chicago)

• Do not capitalize parenthetical translations of titles in references cited

Italics

(a) Words as Words

• Italicize words used as words (e.g., as terms) in written context; but where the context is solely the spoken word, is used for ironic effect, or is a concept, use quotation marks.
  o In Smith 1994 the term _subaltern_ implies
  o to keep children on the “right path” academically
  o Bourdieu, who utilized notions of “cultural capital” and “habitus” o Bourdieu defines _cultural capital_ and _habitus_ as

Numbers

(a) Spell out numbers in the following instances

• One through ten
• Numbers at the beginning of a sentence
• Numbers used in the approximate sense
  o The area comprises roughly two hundred viable sites; _not_ 200
  o About 15 thousand soldiers were killed; _not_ 15,000 or fifteen thousand

(b) Age

• 24 years old, 11 months old, a 34-year-old woman, in her thirties
(c) Currency
- Assume dollar designations are in U.S. currency. Otherwise (e.g., Canada) use:
  - US$200 (not U.S.) and CAN$200
  - Do not use $ with USD (e.g., $20 USD), as it is redundant

(d) Dates
- ninth century, 20th century; 1960–65; 1960s (not 60s); the sixties; October 6, 1966; April 1993 (no comma); C.E. 1200; 1000 B.C.E.; April 18, not April 18th

(e) Fractions
- Hyphenate as both adjective and noun: a two-thirds majority, two-thirds of those present

(f) Inclusive numbers
- Do not elide numbers in a range: 893–897; 1,023–1,045
- Elide year spans (exception to above): 1989–92

(g) “Mid-”
- Hyphenate numbers or numerals: mid-thirties (age), mid-1800s (years)
- Use a long dash (–), rather than hyphen (-), with an open compound: mid–19th century, mid–Cold War

(h) Numbered items, such as parts of a book, are not capitalized
- chapter 5 (in reviews ch. 5 or chs. 5–7), part 2

(i) Ordinals (nd or rd)
- 22nd, rather than 22d; 23rd, rather than 23d

(j) Quantities (Chicago 9.3–9.4; 9.19)
- Use numerals above ten and spell out measurement: 26 millimeters, five miles, 15 kilo-meters (not km); but in tables, OK to use 26 mm, 5 gm, 10 mph
- Express round numbers above ten million in numerals + words: 20 million
- 20 percent, but in tables, OK to use %
- Use commas in four-digit numbers: 1,409; but not page numbers (p. 1409)

(k) Statistics (Chicago 9.20–9.21; 13.5)
- Decimal fractions: use initial zero only if number can equal or exceed 1
  - 0.3–1.5
  - according to a Chi-square test yielding a value of 4.2, p < .05
  - Kappa = .33, p < .05
- Use N for sample sizes, but use n for sub-groups of samples

(l) Time
- 2:00 p.m., noon
Quotations
(a) All published quotations must be cited with year and page number(s) o (1992:7–8)
(b) Avoid the phrase “cited in” where citing quotes within another work. Use the work listed in references cited and adjust the language outside parentheses
   o As Johnson notes (Webber 1992)
   o Do not use: (Johnson, cited in Webber 1992)
(c) Short direct quotes of three lines or less can be inserted into the body of your text. Long quotes of four lines or more must be indented as block quotes.
(d) Format for block quote: Below is an example of a block quote, which you should use for long quotes that would be four or more lines long. Read what it says in the quote.

   You should indent the block quote to the same point as you are indenting your paragraphs (e.g. one tab), and double space the text like the rest of your paper. You do not use quotation marks for block quotes. Instead of “regular” in-text citations, the reference for block quote goes in square brackets [Like This 2007:325].

Parenthetical Citations:
Sources for all works used must be cited in the text of your manuscript.

(1) Simple citation
   (Smith 1998) or Smith (1998)

(2) Two authors
   (Smith and Jones 2012) or Smith and Jones (2012)

(3) Three or more authors
   (Brown et al. 2005) or Brown et al. (2005)

(4) Citation with page numbers, or citing a table or figure. Use with direct quotes of three lines or less, or for specific references like tables, and insert in text as close as possible to the quote or reference. No space between dates, colon and page numbers. (Smith 1998:3) or Smith (1998:3).
   (Smith and Jones 2012:78-39) or Smith and Jones (2012:78-79). (Brown et al. 2005:125) or Brown et al. (2005:125). (Taylor 1979:Table 1) or Taylor (1979:Table 1).

(5) Several authors cited in one place, or several references by same author. Use semicolons to separate different authors. Alphabetize by author; multiple works by same author in chronological order, separated by commas—see examples below)

(6) Two or more references by same author or authors in same year
   (Jones and Brown 1972a, 1972b; Wilson 2012a) or Jones and Brown (1972a, 1972b) and Wilson (2012a)

(7) Two authors, same surname, same year published
(8) Two authors, same surname, different year published
(Jones 1986; Jones 2011) or Jones (1986) and Jones (2011)

(9) No author specified. Cite the group or agency issuing the report or publication.

(10) Government agency, company, or similar entity as author.
(United States Department of Agriculture [USDA] 1975)
Note: Write out the full name, the first time it is used; but if the citation will occur more than once in the text, abbreviate names to the agency’s commonly accepted acronyms and place in brackets (as shown in the example above). Thereafter in the text, use the acronym, e.g. (USDA 1975) or USDA (1975).

(11) Web pages and electronic documents. Treat web pages and electronic documents as published data, but cite the document as you would a single- or multiple-authored document, or as one produced by a group or agency, no author specified [as in above categories]. Do NOT put the web address in parenthetical citations.
