PROCEEDINGS OF THE

SOUTHWESTERN ANTHROPOLOGICAL

ASSOCIATION, 2022

Volume 15

Anthropology in Times of Intersecting Crises

Albuquerque, New Mexico
April 22-23, 2022

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page No.

(Un)Sustainable Tourism in Desert Environments: Jordan and Nevada 1

Joylin Namie
(Truckee Meadows Community College, Reno Nevada)

Thinking Drones, Police, and Habitus in the Context of Community Well-Being 15

Rachel Rangel
(California State University, Northridge)

Dar Cuenta*: Oppositional Discourse, Community, and Hardcore Punk on Social Media During the Time of COVID in Lima, Peru 19

Logan Kruger
(California State University, Long Beach)

Deciphering Wellbeing: LatinX Households and Type 2 Diabetes 25

Samira Khabbazzadeh-Rashti
(California State University, Northridge)

"Needs a Human touch": Emergent Implications for Domestic Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS) in the National Airspace 29

Jessica Steiner
(California State University, Northridge)

Have A Heart in the Valley of Heart's Delight—Santa Clara; Chitactac Beats for Its Own 33

Robyn Houts
(Southern Cross Farm)